

National Institute on Deafness and Other Communication Disorders
Web Site User Survey

We would appreciate your feedback to help us improve our service. All responses are anonymous. Thank you.

1. How did you find the NIDCD Web site?
 - I knew the address. How? _____
 - Through the NIH Web site.
 - Through another government site. Which one? _____
 - Through a search engine (Google, Yahoo). Which one? _____
 - Followed a link from another site. Which one? _____
 - Referral from a friend, colleague, or family member.
 - Other, please specify _____

2. Which of the following best describes you when you visit the NIDCD Web site?
 - Patient/person diagnosed with a health condition
 - Family member or friend of a patient/person diagnosed with a health condition
 - Health care provider
 - Scientist/researcher
 - Student
 - Teacher
 - Librarian
 - Journalist or reporter
 - Other, please specify _____

3. What are you seeking on the NIDCD site today? [check all that apply]
 - Health information (for example: information about hearing loss, deafness, balance disorders, hearing aids, language disorders, smell and taste problems)
 - Clinical trials information
 - Research funding information
 - Research conducted in NIDCD labs
 - Job vacancies
 - Training programs/grants
 - Press releases
 - Links to other organizations
 - Meeting information
 - Nothing specific, just browsing

Overall, the site was easy to use.

10. Would you use this Web site again?
- I would definitely use it.
 - I would probably use it.
 - I probably would not use it.
 - I definitely would not use it.

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 5 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to: NIH, Project Clearance Branch, 6705 Rockledge Drive, MSC 7974, Bethesda, MD 20892-7974, ATTN: PRA (0925-0486). Do not return the completed form to this address.